

The Institution of Civil Engineers Panel for Historical Engineering Works

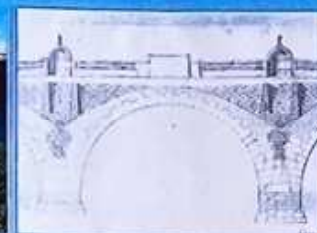

engineering heritage of the British Isles

Stimulating
an awareness of our civil engineering
heritage

Encouraging
best practice in conservation

Encouraging
the study of the history of civil engineering

Recording
and historical assessment

Research
and publication

Backed up by the Institution of Civil Engineers
Library and Archives
the longest established civil engineering library in the world

Contact
Mike Chrimes
Head Librarian
Institution of Civil Engineers
Great George Street
London UK
W1P 3AA

Telephone +44 20 7665 2250
Fax +44 20 7976 7610

Email mike.chrimes@ice.org.uk <http://www.ice.org.uk>

Illustrations from left to right:

Combe Down Railway 1727
Conservation of Lough Malin Viaduct 1811 in 1996
Windsor Bridge 1850
Kilby Tunnel 1836
Alderney Breakwater 1850